

University of York
Europe Campus

GUEST LECTURE

Inside HR at Kuehne+Nagel: Driving Performance, Navigating Complexity, Shaping the Future of Work

Wednesday, 13 May 2026

11:30-13:00 | Room L3, L. Sofou Premises

Speaker:

Ms. Christina Dimatati

Head of HR GS Greece

Kuehne+Nagel

Description:

Get inside the dynamic world of Human Resource Management at Kuehne+Nagel, where global scale, strategic decision-making, and human capital intersect in real time! Moving beyond theory, this guest lecture will reveal how HR actively shapes organisational performance, navigates complex trade-offs, and leverages digital tools and artificial intelligence to transform the way people are managed across borders. Through vivid organisational examples and candid insights, students will engage with the tensions, challenges, and opportunities that define modern HR practice, gaining a sharper, practice-driven understanding of how HR evolves into a central driver of competitiveness and the future of work.

In the context of:
Human Resource Management module led by Dr Giovanni Serafini

Important note:
Postgraduate students are warmly invited to participate.
To secure your place, please contact your Course Administrator,
Ms Koukouvani, at your earliest convenience